

-ĀRE verbs

- The part of the verb that ends in -āre is called the infinitive.
- In English, the infinitive starts with the word “to”, followed by the name of the verb.
- -āre verbs are the first conjugation, or group, of Latin verbs.
- The -āre group of verbs is the biggest group.

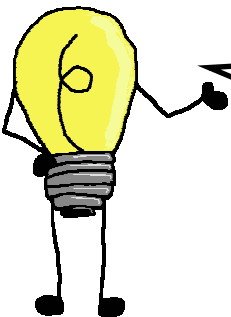

amāre	to love
amō	I love
amās	you love (one person)
amat	he / she loves
amāmus	we love
amātis	you love (more than one person)
amant	they love

To make the part of the verb that you need, chop off the -āre to make the stem, then add the right ending.
