

-ERE verbs

- The part of the verb that ends in -ere is called the infinitive.
- In English, the infinitive starts with the word “to”, followed by the name of the verb.
- -ere verbs are the third conjugation, or group, of Latin verbs.
- The -ere group of verbs is the second biggest group.

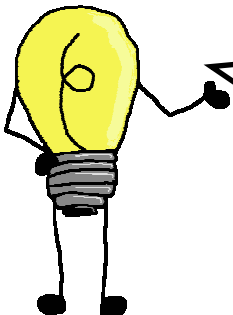

regere	to rule
regō	I rule
regis	you rule (one person)
regit	he / she rules
regimus	we rule
regitis	you rule (more than one person)
regunt	they rule

To make the part of the verb that you need, chop off the -ere to make the stem, then add the right ending.
