

Cabeza, hombros, manos, pies    Head, shoulders, hands, feet

Cabeza, hombros,
manos, pies,
manos pies.

*Head, shoulders,
hands, feet,
hands, feet.*

Cabeza, hombros,
manos, pies,
manos pies.

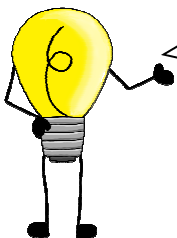

*Head, shoulders,
hands, feet,
hands, feet.*

Y ojos, boca,
orejas y nariz,

*And eyes, mouth,
ears and nose.*

Cabeza, hombros,
manos, pies,
manos pies.

*Head, shoulders,
hands, feet,
hands, feet.*

Manos (hands) is used because it fits into the tune much better than the Spanish word for knees. The four parts of the head are in a different order to the English version for the same reason. There are lots of versions of this song on the internet, but the words are always slightly different!
